

THE UPLIFT

APRIL, 1917

$1.00 Per Annum

A Pointer.

Order and cleanliness preserve a house from ruin and rejoice the stranger. Unity maintains the happiness of a family. A well conducted house in every detail is the mark of people of unspotted name, living with wise liberality and happy security. In such a home each has his assigned place, his allotted duty to fulfill, his fixed rights to demand. If thou be of this creed O Reader, pray that heaven send thee a wife after thine own heart.---George Ebers.

Published Monthly at the Stonewall Jackson
Manual Training and Industrial School.
Concord, N. C.